HOLY SPIRIT NOVENA is the original and most important novena. We join Our Lady and the disciples in the Upper Room as they await the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday. The novena begins on Friday 10th May and the prayers can be found at <http://tiny.cc/HSNOVENA>

POST COMMUNION PRAYER: Just sit with Me here / rest in My Presence / relinquish all fear / let go of all that you are grasping at. I am enough for you / I am all you need to be sure of, and you can always be sure of Me, of My Love, My Presence. Sit quietly with Me and breath in the wonder of My ever-present Love. I am yours. Just be with Me now and always...

BROWN SCAPULAR ENROLMENT will take place in Ardaghey Chapel immediately after the 6pm Mass on Saturday May 18th. The brown scapular is an esteemed sacramental of the Catholic Church and was worn by many saints throughout the centuries. This miniature garment symbolises being cloaked in Our Lady's maternal love – just like wedding rings symbolises the unending love of the spouses. A special enrolment invitation is extended to all our young people who are receiving First Communion and Confirmation at this time

South Donegal Vintage Club are having a Vintage Working Day in Rossnowlough on Sun. 28th April. Come along and enjoy memories of yesteryear & support Donegal Hospice & Sligo Oncology. 11 to 5pm. Adults €10.
